El Croquis 173 - MVRDV (2003-2014) From El Croquis

The current publication collects the most significant works by his office from 2003 to the present -presented in full with several construction plans, and a profusion of photographs and sketches-. The monograph is prefaced by an interview with MVRDV by the architects Charles Bessard and Nanne de Ru, and a critical essay on their work by Aaron Betsky. Among the buildings and projects featured the most remarkable ones are the Gemini Residences, the apartment building Parkrand in Rotterdam, the rooftop house extension Didden Village in Rotterdam, the holiday house Balancing Barn in Thorington, the public library Book Mountain in Spijkenisse, the mixed-use centre Glass Farm in Schijndel and the shopping centre Chunga Building in Gangnam

From the Inside Flap

In this special issue, famed Dutch architects Winy Maas, Jacob van Rijs and Nathalie de Vries, collectively known as MVRDV, take centre stage. Based in Rotterdam, the office has had its fingers on the pulse of global solutions to contemporary issues in architecture and urbanism for two decades and counting.

Featuring detailed profiles of more than 20 top projects, including Copenhagen's Gemini Residences, Busan Cinema Complex, Gangnam Shopping Centre, the new Market Hall in Rotterdam and Parkrand Apartments in Amsterdam, plus an essay by Aaron Betsky and a conversation with MVRDV and Charles Bessard and Nanne de Ru of Powerhouse Company.
